Maharani Dishes

For over thousands of years India has been known for their exotic fruits and vegetable and local people have taken advantage of this and invented many dishes which is called Maharani. These dishes are special because the heart of the flavour is through the use of exotic fruits which is unique to the European market.

Garlic Bengal Herbgreen

Fresh green peppers, onions and Indian green chillies, which have been marinated and then blended into a special medium sauce and then topped with finely chopped garlic

Mushroom Jaipur

Medium dish with chopped mushrooms then mixed in with some Indian style tomato puree, gives a easy tangy flavour

Naga

Medium hot dish with a special chilli called naga, done in a thick flavour sauce

Maharani Sweet

Sweet medium dish with a fruity sauce

Methi Gosht

Medium curry with Feunegriek leaves

Mango Mumeem

Mild creamy coconut dish with fresh chopped mangoes

Hathcora

Medium dish, with a special kind of Indian lemon called Hathcora that gives it a unique tangy taste. You will be amazed by the taste this dish creates

Chilli Garlic

Fairly hot dish. The beauty of this dish lies in the strength of the curry, which derives not from the use of ground chilli powder, but from halved fresh chillis

Palak

Palak is a superb dish from the heart of the Bengal, originally cooked using fresh grown sag (spinach), whole ground spices, and a fresh mixture of aromatic spices and crushed garlic

The above dishes available in:

Chicken Tikka	£9.60
Lamb Tikka	£9.80
King Prawn	£14.00
Prawn	£9.95
Vegetable or Mushroom	£7.90
Oriental Garlic Chilli	£9.65
(mixture of chicken, lamb and prawn)

All the great things are simple, and many can be expressed in a single word: freedom, justice, honour, duty, mercy and hope.
